Morris & Morris Attorneys Again Selected Among Best Lawyers in America©

Rochester Attorneys Deborah Morris Field and James Morris have again been chosen by their peers for inclusion in the 2019 Edition of Best Lawyers in America

Best Lawyers in America—the oldest and most respected peer-review publication in the legal industry—has again awarded two prominent local attorneys in their latest edition.

For the 15th consecutive year, James E. Morris of Morris & Morris Attorneys has received particularly high ratings by his peers in the specialty area of Mediation. Deborah M. Field of Morris & Morris Attorneys was also honored for her work in the practice area of Personal Injury Litigation for the fifth consecutive year.

“Being listed in Best Lawyers® is considered a prestigious achievement in the legal profession based on the high level of regard and positive feedback other leading attorneys have for the recipients, Field explained. I’m pleased to have been recognized and remain committed to providing the personal attention and excellence our clients have valued for the three generations Morris & Morris has served the Rochester community,” Field added.
